

Students at Rainy River High School Showcase Their Talents

by Melissa Friesen

Whether painted, performed, or pounded together with nails - the students at the Rainy River High School have been busy honing their crafts and making them showcase ready. Last week, the public was invited to come out and see and hear their creations and as usual, the students did not disappoint.

Kirsten Armstrong and Katelyn Brown play the guitar and sing together.

Carlin Drennan and Liam Pearson demonstrate robotics skills by racing through a maze.

Food class students Taytum Stone, Paige Stamler, Isaac Lauzon, Kaden Anderson EA-Sheila Hanson, Logan Martin offered guests dishes that they prepared inspired by international cuisines.

Guests Rose Tetu and Angela Haw listen as Carena Haw shows them some of the pottery art the students had made. All photos courtesy of the Rainy River District School Board.
